Please join us for our Lenten Retreat. You will discover important truths that will challenge, motivate ~~and~~ inspire you to live life to its fullest, seeking all good things that will keep you focused on what matters in life within the family!

The raising of children is a growing concern, especially in light of disintegrating marriages and growing problems among the young. Fr Demetrius Nicoloudakis will address the spiritual foundation and context for the Orthodox Christian within the framework of the Gospel of Jesus and the Apostles with an overview of some of the practical concerns and applications on the issues of family and parenting.
